NEW FALL PROMOTIONS AT THE PENINSULA BEVERLY HILLS

"Dine & Delight" and "Weekend Break" Offer Spa Credits, Complimentary Dining

The Peninsula Beverly Hills, a resort oasis in the heart of the city, has created two new reasons to escape to Beverly Hills for a one-night – or weekend – getaway. "Dine & Delight" offers guests a Superior room at the special rate of US$ 550 plus tax, including full American breakfast and a three-course dinner at The Roof Garden restaurant for two, and a US$ 150 Spa credit. With the "Weekend Break" promotion, guests checking in on Friday or Saturday for a two-night stay are offered a Superior room at the special rate of US$ 395 plus tax and a US$ 50 hotel credit, per day.

The Peninsula Beverly Hills continues to set the standard for luxury hospitality in Southern California with amenities such as 24-hour flexible check-in, superlative guest service, elegant Afternoon Tea in The Living Room and exceptional treatments in The Spa. Hotel guests can enjoy time by the rooftop pool in the privacy of their own state-of-the-art cabana, and al fresco cocktails and dining at The Roof Garden restaurant. In the hotel's AAA Five Diamond Award-winning Belvedere restaurant, Executive Chef James Overbaugh presents superb market-driven contemporary California cuisine in a style described by the Wine Spectator as "vivid and graceful."

"Our new fall promotions provide good reason for local residents as well as out-of-town guests to treat themselves to an elegant urban getaway as only The Peninsula can provide," says Offer Nissenbaum, Managing Director of The Peninsula Beverly Hills.

The "Dine & Delight" and "Weekend Break" promotions are valid for new reservations only, until 31 December 2009, subject to availability. The dining portion does not include tax, gratuity, or alcoholic beverages. The Spa credit does not include tax or gratuity, and cannot be used for manicures, pedicures or retail products. The hotel credit cannot be used against the room charge, mini bar or room service.
