NEW SUNDAY DINING AT THE PENINSULA BEVERLY HILLS

The Belvedere Restaurant Unveils Sunday Jazz Brunch and Sunday Supper

Just in time for the holidays, The Peninsula Beverly Hills has unveiled two new Sunday dining options in The Belvedere restaurant, which features the contemporary market-driven cuisine of Executive Chef James Overbaugh and impeccable service in its elegant interior and on the sun-splashed patio.

Live jazz performed by the The Bernie Meissinger Band now adds an upbeat ambiance to Sunday Brunch at The Belvedere. Diners can select an array of appetizers among such specialties as Peking Duck, carved to order; house-made Smoked Salmon; Ahi Tuna Nicoise salad and Macaroni with Cheese and Shaved Truffles. Entrée choices range from The Peninsula's "Croque Madame" made with Truffled Brioche, Country Ham, Fontina Cheese and Organic Eggs; Quiche of Hawaiian Blue Prawns and Oaxacan Chorizo; and Duck Eggs with Duck Confit, Okinawa Sweet Potatoes and Chanterelle Mushrooms, to Kobe-style Flat Iron Steak. For dessert, guests are welcome to sample from the bounteous pastry buffet. The price for Sunday Jazz Brunch is $59 per person or $69 per person with the addition of free-flowing Perrier Jouët Champagne. Sunday Brunch is served from 11:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Come 6:00 p.m., The Belvedere opens for dinner, and now, in addition to the regular dinner menu, guests can order from a weekly changing three-course menu featuring selected dinner menu items, for only $49 per person. Appetizers might include a choice of the Arugula-Treviso salad with Fuyu Persimmon, Dried Cranberries and Styrian Pumpkin Seed Oil Vinaigrette or Sautéed New Zealand Langoustines with Golden Chanterelles, Water Spinach and La Ratte Potato Purée. Entrées may be Seared Diver Sea Scallops with Prince Edward Island Mussels and Saffron Aioli and an Inspired Bouillabaisse Broth, or Herbed Colorado Lamb Rack with Merguez-filled Lamb Loin with Roasted Eggplant Quinoa, Lamb's Quarters and Indian Eggplant with Greek Yogurt. For dessert, diners may choose from a selection including Cardamom-Scented Organic Carrot Cake with Cream Cheese Ice
