THE PENINSULA BEVERLY HILLS LAUNCHES “RIBS ON THE ROOF”

Summer barbecue menu offered at The Roof Garden on Saturday and Sunday evenings from May 22 through September 5, 2010

With summer around the corner, The Peninsula Beverly Hills is pleased to announce its Roof Garden summer weekend barbecue beginning on Saturday, May 22, 2010. The Roof Garden’s chic outdoor setting offers stunning city views, AAA Five-Diamond service, tranquil environs as well as extraordinary cuisine, while the heated limestone-tiled floor makes dining alfresco comfortable even on cool evenings. New to the menu this summer is Executive Chef James Overbaugh’s Barbecued Pork “Ribs on the Roof”, prepared with The Peninsula Beverly Hills’ own secret 24-spice rub.

At The Roof Garden, guests may dine on barbecued specialties fresh off the grill, either ordering à la carte or as part of a three-course US$ 55 prix fixe menu. The prix fixe barbecue menu begins with “A Composed Skewer” of Grilled Duck Sausage with Charred Summer Pineapple, Bard Valley Dates, Rocket Arugula and Heirloom Watermelon. In addition to the special 24-spice-rubbed Barbecued Pork “Ribs on the Roof”, guests can choose entrées such as Free-range Chicken with Grilled Portobello Mushrooms and Apricot Barbecue Sauce; Grilled Alaskan Halibut with Fennel Slaw and a Raspberry-Chipotle Glaze; and Grilled T-Bone Steak with Abalone Mushrooms and Jamaican Jerk Barbecue Sauce. A whole Grilled Maine Lobster with Orange-Honey Butter is offered for an additional US$ 15 supplement. Entrées are served with Baked Okinawa Sweet Potatoes and Southwestern Pepper and Corn Salad. The prix fixe menu finishes with a selection of The Roof Garden desserts. The à la carte menu features market-fresh appetizers, salads, entrées and health-conscious Naturally Peninsula dishes. In addition to offering wine and beer, the Roof Garden features signature cocktails such as the Speckled Jalapeño Margarita, the Pomegranate Mojito and Frozen Lemonade.
