

THE PENINSULA

HONG KONG

14th January 2008

A DECENT PROPOSAL

The Peninsula Hong Kong has long been at the epicentre of romance – whether celebrating a wedding or an anniversary, more than any other hotel in Hong Kong, The Pen has helped to make special occasions spectacular.

But before vows are spoken, a proposal must be expressed. At The Peninsula, this is done high above the city nearly once every fortnight, as couples take to the skies in the hotel’s exclusive twin-engined Aerospatiale Squirrel helicopter. Favoured by lovebirds, hearing “Yes!” above the engine noise may be a challenge, but lip reading the exclamation ought to be a breeze.

Alternatively, for an earth-bound experience also aimed to elicit a resounding “Yes!”, choose a candlelit dinner in one of The Peninsula’s award-winning restaurants or celebrate privately in one of its well-appointed suites.

With so many ways to celebrate Valentine's Day at The Peninsula – ranging from a 30-minute flightseeing tour for HK$ 5,000 to the “Pen-Ultimate” package, plus everything in between – guests are spoiled for choice. Even when it comes to just dining, there are many options, with romantic dinners served in seven outlets (Felix, The Pool, The Verandah, The Lobby, Gaddi’s, Spring Moon and Imasa). The special highlight of all, of course, is The Pool, which is open to the public only once per year. Moreover, Spa packages by The Peninsula Spa by ESPA allow guests to continue the pursuit of romance well. Meanwhile, luxurious offerings from The Peninsula Boutique make gift giving simple.
