LATE NIGHT SNACKS IN THE CITY AT FELIX

To complement the Philippe Starck décor and Chef Ashton's ever-popular à la carte offerings, a new "Late Night Supper" menu is now available nightly at Felix from 10:30 pm to 12:30 am.

An ideal choice for after-show snacks, the "Late Night Supper" menu features a host of delectable dishes, ranging from Smoked Beef Tenderloin, Caramelized Onion and Brie on Toasted French Bread to Shrimp Dijon, and from Oscietra Caviar with Traditional Condiments to Steak House Fries with Truffles. A selection of mouthwatering desserts such as Raspberry Pavlova and Apple-ginger Tart are also available.

For those who fancy a nightcap, the Felix long marble table is the perfect spot. A river of colour and light run down the centre of the table, with candles, glass pebbles and multi-coloured vodka bottles providing the best setting for a selection of unique vodkas, martinis and cocktails.

Located on the 28th floor of The Peninsula tower, Felix is the creation of the world-famous avant-garde designer, Philippe Starck. The restaurant offers breathtaking views of Victoria Harbour, Hong Kong Island and Kowloon.

Serving contemporary cuisine made with the freshest seasonal ingredients, Felix Chef Ashton Hall joined The Peninsula Hong Kong with over 10 years' culinary experience in restaurants and hotels. Before relocating to Hong Kong, he most recently was the Executive Chef of Dune by Jean-Georges at the One & Only Ocean Club in the Bahamas. Prior to this, he was Executive Sous Chef of Bank Jean-Georges at the Hotel Icon in Houston.
