JOSEPH SAMPERMANS

General Manager, The Peninsula Bangkok

Joseph Sampermans has been General Manager of The Peninsula Bangkok since 2016. His commitment to The Peninsula Hotels, however, spans more than a dozen years. Prior to his appointment at The Peninsula Bangkok, Mr Sampermans spent more than four years as General Manager of The Peninsula Beijing, overseeing the landmark transformation of the hotel during his tenure. He also held the post of Resident Manager at The Peninsula Tokyo and The Peninsula Hong Kong.

Mr Sampermans spent several years working on the executive teams at luxury hotels in Cambodia, Germany and Thailand before taking his first post with The Peninsula Hotels – as Director of Food & Beverage at The Peninsula Bangkok – in 2004. He was pleased to return to the property as General Manager, and equally glad to return to Thailand, one of Mr Sampermans' favourite countries for living and travelling.

A Dutch national, Mr Sampermans holds a degree in Finance from Limburg Zuyd University in the Netherlands.
