The Peninsula New York

GOOD MORNING NYC

---

THE HOTEL

Superbly situated at the center of Manhattan's most glamorous midtown shopping and entertainment district, The Peninsula New York occupies a 23-story, 1905 landmark Beaux-Arts building at the intersection of Fifth Avenue and 55th Street. The hotel is the U.S. flagship property of The Peninsula Hotels; it is also Forbes Five-Star and AAA Five-Diamond-rated.

ACCOMMODATION

The Peninsula New York's 235 luxuriously appointed guestrooms include 50 suites, as well as two palatial superior suites—the Fifth Avenue Suite and Peninsula Suite—encompassing more than 2,500 square feet (232 square meters) apiece.

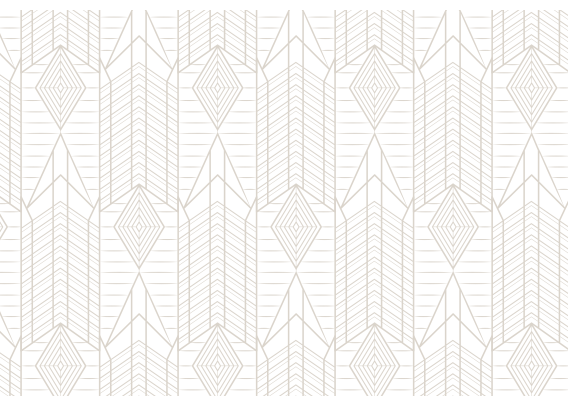

All accommodation comes furnished with:

- An average 400 square feet of space
- Complimentary high-speed WiFi.
- Bedside electronic panels that allow lighting and temperature control with the touch of a button
- Tablet technology in 11 languages
- Deluxe marble bathrooms with walk-in showers, baths, wall-mounted TVs and hands-free telephones
- LED flat-screen TVs with cable and audio/visual entertainment options
- Double-glazed, soundproof windows
- Nail dryers

DINING

The Peninsula New York's four restaurants and lounges comprise some of the city's premier dining and drinking destinations—among them the dazzling, Asia-inspired rooftop hotspot Salon de Ning. The hotel's dining options include:

- Clement, the hotel's signature restaurant, featuring fresh, seasonal American fare for breakfast, lunch, dinner, and weekend brunch.
- Bar at Clement, a stylish, low-lit modern lounge overlooking Fifth Avenue serving artisanal libations, wines and beers, and light bar bites.
- Gotham Lounge, a chic, townhouse-style mezzanine bar off the hotel lobby, offering casual all-day dining and the legendary Peninsula Afternoon Tea.
- Salon de Ning, a rooftop lounge extending across two adjoining outdoor terraces, known for its decadent cocktails and lush, 1930s-Shanghai ambience.
