JONATHAN H. CROOK

General Manager, The Peninsula New York

Jonathan H. Crook has been General Manager of The Peninsula New York since 2011. His commitment to The Peninsula Hotels, however, spans more than a decade. Prior to his appointment at The Peninsula New York, Mr. Crook held key executive positions at other Peninsula locations in both Asia and North America. Most recently, he served for more than two years as General Manager of The Peninsula Manila; he also held posts as Hotel Manager of The Peninsula Tokyo, Resident Manager of The Peninsula Beijing, and Director of Food and Beverage at The Peninsula Chicago.

Before joining The Peninsula Hotels, Mr. Crook spent several years working on the executive teams at luxury properties—including The Dorchester in London, and The Sonnenald Resort in Vail, Colorado.

Born and raised in the U.K., Mr. Crook spent formative years in Portugal, Zambia, Montserrat, and Egypt before receiving a Higher National Diploma in Hotel & Institutional Management from Gloucestershire University in Cheltenham, U.K. During his early years in the hotel industry, he completed the Executive Development Program at the Kellogg School of Management through The University of Science and Technology in Hong Kong. He also completed an Executive Management program at Harvard Business School.
